FORECASTS OF CONTROL OF THE NEXT HOUSE Made by Democratic and Republican Leaders Last Night.

Washington, March 9.—Optimistic forecasts of the control of the next house came quietly from democratic and republican leaders tonight when they heard of the president's call for an extra session of congress April 15. The speaker of the house, however, foresees only a long and bitter organization fight unless a coalition agreement prevails. Both Speaker Clark and Representative Woods of Iowa, chairman of the republican congressional committee, predicted victory for their respective parties. Each said his party was assured of at least 213 votes and that this probably would be its minimum strength.

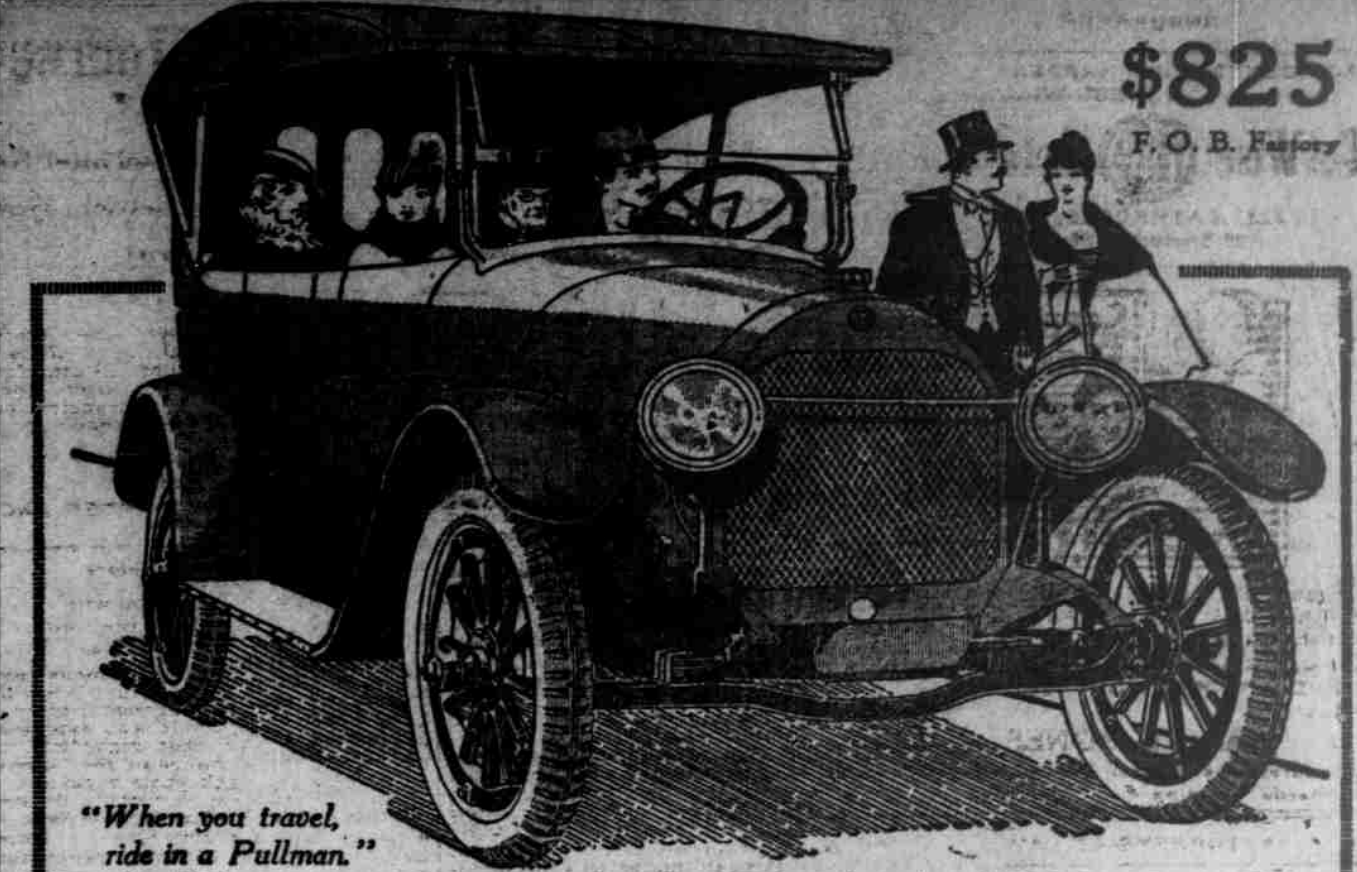

The official standing of the incoming house is as follows: Republicans 216, democrats 214, prohibitionist 1, progressive 1, progressive-republican 1, socialist 1, independent 1, vacant 1. The vacancy exists in the Fifteenth New York district, which is overwhelmingly democratic. Under the New York law this vacancy can be filled before the extra session begins if a special election is called before next Friday.

Members of Holy Name Society and Friends Hear Illustrated Talk by Rev. W. A. Keefe—Gun Club's Scores—Opera Cast Rehearsed with Director Gear of Norwich.

Rev. William A. Keefe gave an illustrated talk to the members of the Holy Name society and their friends in the society rooms Friday evening. A large gathering greatly enjoyed Father Keefe's talk. His first picture was a view of the catacombs of Rome. He explained the history of these catacombs and told of the sufferings of the early martyrs, their heroism and their many sacrifices for Christian ideals. Father Keefe also explained the pictures and carvings and inscriptions which are seen in the catacombs and the significance of the Christian doctrine.

The next view was that of the Coliseum. Then came the Triumphal Arch of Rome, next the famous Raphael's painting, representing Constantine, surrounded by his soldiers, beholding the cross in the heavens. Father Keefe explained the appearance of the cross and of "In the sign of the cross, conquer" and the effect of this historic event on Christianity which event gave Christians the liberty of worshipping in public. Views of the Vatican and of the famous Raphael's paintings and sculptures exhibited there were next shown. The lecturer spoke on the glorious influence that went out to the world from the Vatican. He explained at length the history of the art galleries and of the renowned painting. In discussing the early civilizing influence of the church, Father Keefe presented the picture of Montecassino where Saint Benedict founded his order, which was of wonderful religious influence on the countries of the old world. Pictures of Mt. Vesuvius, Pompeii, and Naples were then shown and Father Keefe told of his visits to these places which proved most interesting to his listeners.

Another feature of the work of the church was a group of pictures of the early Crusaders. The story of Richard the Lion-hearted and the story of Saint Louis, king of France, were told. Father Keefe spoke on Saint Louis, as a Crusader, and faithful son, and as the ideal ruler of his people. As works of the church in the present day, Father Keefe introduced a group of pictures of the great Catholic sisterhood. He spoke at length upon the Roman Catholic Nuns' work for the poor, the needy, the afflicted and of their faithful services to their country at all times. He urged his hearers to be inspired by these noble examples offered by the Catholic sisterhood and to aid in such ways as this great order sets the example.

At the close of the talk, Rev. Father Keefe was accorded generous applause for his interesting and educative talk.

This Simple Laxative A Household Necessity

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Should Have a Place in Every Home

Constipation, or inaction of the bowels, a condition that nearly everyone experiences with more or less frequency, is the direct cause of much disease. "Whenever the bowels become clogged with refuse from the stomach, foul gases and poisons are generated, and unless the congestion is quickly relieved the system becomes weakened and most susceptible to attack.

Various remedies to relieve constipation are prescribed, but many of these contain cathartic or purgative agents that are harsh and violent in their action and shock the system. The most effective remedy is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

The Hon. John D. Kelster of Brantford, W. Va., who has represented his district in the State Legislature for six years, writes that he uses Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and finds it a splendid laxative, easy to take and mild, yet positive, in its action, and that it should be in every household for use when needed.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists in all parts of the United States and costs only fifty cents a bottle. It contains no opiates or narcotic drugs, does not gripe, and is recommended as a family laxative, mild for use when needed.

enough for the tiniest babe, yet sufficiently powerful to act easily on the strongest constitution. To avoid imitations and "ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B.
